Danville Symphony Jeremy Swerling

Jeremy has been the director of the Danville Symphony since 1990, and lived in Danville for about three years. He pointed out how rare it is for a town the size of Danville to have a symphony.

Our symphony consists of 40 to 100 musicians, we play entirely acoustic music. A symphony has no words, no chorus, longer songs and generally more emotion than pop music. There are four main concerts each year for the symphony.

December 9th they will feature "The Nutcracker" complete with Ballet. On March 24, 2001 they will perform "Once Upon a Time" featuring Ravel's Mother Goose Suite, Beethoven's Grand Emperor Concerto, and Strousse's Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks. May 19, 2000 will be a Gershwin Celebration with jazz vocalist Spider Saloff.
